

SiVuka! are hosting a fantastic event in Philippi on the 26th of November!

Entertainment includes Freshly Ground and Nik Rabinowitz! With honorary guest: Archbishop Desmond Tutu.

The Anton Lubowski Educational Trust along with The South African German Centre for Development Research and Criminal Justice at UWC are hosting an Educational Jamboree and Science Slam, along with the performers mentioned above. The Educational Jamboree involves UFS, UCT, UWC and other FET colleges coming to exhibit to tell young High School students what the admission criteria are. The day will be fun and interactive.

Please join them on the day as they really need the support! To book tickets please purchase them on www.computicket.com, search for SiVuka and make your booking.

Kind regards,
James

P.S if you know of any High School students who would like to attend, please ask them to contact Nadia Lubowski at nadialubowski@gmail.com in order to obtain the reduced rate offered to them.
