

Education in South Africa... a call to action!

The National Planning Commission recently identified education as one of the two critical challenges facing our nation.

It is our privilege to invite you to an evening with one of South Africa's most outstanding and critical thinkers in the field of education, Professor Brian O'Connell, Vice Chancellor of UWC, as we respond to the call to action in education in South Africa.

Do join us for this significant event. Your presence and your voice changes things.

See the event details below and confirm your attendance now by replying directly to Rafeeqah on schoolsadmin@symphonia.net to book your place.

Thank you. Dankie. Enkosi. Siyabonga.
